

Machine Maintenance Technician
United Grinding Virginia

Want to work on the world's most advanced tool grinders? How about using both your mechanical and electrical skills? International machine tool builder in Fredericksburg needs person with strong mechanical and electrical background to assemble, troubleshoot & service high precision CNC machines. Excellent benefits. Competitive hourly pay - commensurate with experience. Inside, temperature controlled environment. Fax resume to: (540) 710-2410. E-mail: leslie.eiler@walter-grinders.com

- Electronic, electrical, and mechanical assembly and trouble shooting according to applicable codes, drawings, and procedures
- PC troubleshooting and repair, including use of electronic test equipment (oscilloscopes, multi-meters)
- Perform geometry measurements on a machine and adjust to meet specs
- Includes rigging and millwright tasks
- Requires basic tool grinding knowledge to determine nature of machine problems